ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court upon what the Court will construe as a motion pro se by defendant Arnold Adams for compassionate release pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A) and the First Step Act of 2018. (Doc. No. 604). This is Defendant's fourth motion for compassionate release. He contends that he has served too much time. Defendant has completed serving his original sentence of 240 months and is currently serving the second of two sentences for violations of supervised release. (Doc. Nos. 577, 592). Having carefully reviewed the defendant's motion and all other relevant portions of the record, the Court will deny the motion.

Defendant's motion for compassionate release was denied because Defendant did not exhaust his administrative remedies nor support it with proper evidence. (Doc. Nos. 595, 598, 603). Defendant presents no new evidence that this Court has not previously considered and the Court finds no reason to change its prior rulings.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, that the defendant's pro se motion for compassionate release pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A) and the First Step Act of 2018 (Doc. No. 604), is DENIED without prejudice to a renewed motion properly supported by evidence and after exhaustion of his administrative remedies.

SO ORDERED.
